

Successful Completion of 2022 BC Chinese Writing Competition for School Students

In order to promote multicultural exchange and to provide a platform for students to learn and practice Chinese language, Confucius Institute in Coquitlam organized the 2022 BC Chinese Writing Competition for school Students. This competition was open to all K-12 BC students who were Canadian citizens or Canadian permanent residents. There were two groups for this competition, the heritage group and the non-heritage group. If one or both of the parents spoke Chinese as their first language, the students would be placed in the heritage group. Otherwise, they would be placed in the non-heritage group. All the contest participants were required to submit their writings on-line and the submission deadline was the end of June, 2022. Eighty-four students participated in this competition this year.

The theme of this year's competition was “I Have Grown Up”. The students in their writings expressed their life highlights, recalling their grown-up stories, appreciations, future dreams and wishes. Through their reflections, they shared their thoughts and visions on their lives. BC experienced Chinese teachers and experts were invited to be the judges for this competition. The judging was based on the writing, focused on the theme, content, logical writing structure as well as vocabulary used and sentences. There were 54 winners, including 6 first prizes, 12 second prizes, 14 third prizes and 22 special prizes. All the participants will receive participation certificates and the winning writings will be published in the local Chinese newspapers.
