

Confucius Institute in Coquitlam has been awarded

“Excellent Certificate for Teachers of Chinese to Speakers of Other Languages Test Center” and “Excellent Chinese Test Center”

On December 9th, 2022, the Center for Language Education and Cooperation held a commendation ceremony, commending schools and institutions that have held the “Certificate for Teachers of Chinese to Speakers of Other Languages” and “HSK test” during the past year.

This year, Confucius Institute in Coquitlam once again stands out among more than 1330 test centers in 162 countries around the world, has been awarded both “Excellent Certificate for Teachers of Chinese to Speakers of Other Languages Test Center” and “Excellent Chinese Test Center”, and became the only test site that has received both of these awards in North America. Our center is also honored to receive the “Excellent Chinese Test Center” for the third consecutive year.

During the third year of world pandemic, we offered online and home edition tests to the public. Starting from September, we offered in-person test. There were 209 registrations for “Certificate for Teachers Test” and 355 registrations for HSK test in total.

In 2023, Confucius Institute in Coquitlam will offer both online and in-person tests and strive to keep providing convenient test services for everyone.
