

2023 Chinese Classical Poetry Recitation Competition for BC School Students

The Confucius Institute in Coquitlam organized the 2023 Chinese Classical Poetry Recitation Competition for BC school students between October 1st and December 31st of 2023. This competition was open to all BC students from kindergarten to grade 12. The purpose of this contest was to motivate the students so that they could show their understanding of Chinese classical poetries through their recitation by using either sound or video recordings. The contest had two categories, heritage and non-heritage. The competition groups were based on the grade levels.

As the annual activity of Confucius Institute in Coquitlam, this contest was warmly received by BC students and teachers at the schools and many students actively participated in this activity to display their Chinese language ability and their talents. About 100 students registered in this contest from kindergarten to grade 12. All the participants selected the poems they liked on their own. For their recitations, they performed the poems in their own creative styles, with their special voices and ways. The most famous pieces recited included 《View the Boundless Ocean》, 《Homesick in Bright Moonlight》, 《Invitation to Wine》, 《Song of Wanderer》, 《Spring of the Southern China》, 《The River Snow》, 《Full River Red》. Most students carefully chose beautiful and relevant music as accompaniment and dressed up with some specially designed costumes to provide the best performances.

This competition was carried out online, where all the participants submitted their entries electronically to a designated website. In order to keep the judging fair and professional, the organizer invited experienced Chinese teachers and experts as the judges, and all the judging was also done online. There were 65 winners for this competition. Among them were 10 first prize winners, 22 second prize winners and 33 third prize winners. All the participants will receive participation certificates and the winners will receive award certificates and prizes. Confucius Institute in Coquitlam will email all the participants for the details regarding the prize and certificate presentation.
