2023 Painting and Calligraphy Contest for School Students

Confucius Institute in Coquitlam

Confucius Institute in Coquitlam hosted 2023 Painting and Calligraphy Contest for BC students from October 1st to December 30th. This online contest was open to all BC students from kindergarten to grade 12. The purpose of this contest was to provide the students with a platform to display and exchange their art talents and abilities. The painting contest included a variety of artistic styles: traditional Chinese painting, oil painting, watercolor painting, sketching, crayon drawing, comics, and digital art. The entries for the calligraphy contest were strictly kept to Chinese calligraphy. The participating students were divided into five groups: elementary students were separated into three different age groups, middle school students were grouped together, as were the secondary school students.

In order to keep the judging fair and professional, the organizer invited a panel of artists and teachers to be the judges for this contest. The contest resulted in twenty winners. Among them were five first prize winners, five second prize winners and ten third prize winners. All winners and participants of the contests will receive their respective prizes and certificates. Confucius Institute in Coquitlam will reach out to all participants via email providing detailed information on how to claim the certificates and prizes.
